Real Estate

order to settle up the estate and division among the heirs of the George Alphin, the undersigned offer for sale at public auction, on will offer for sale at public auction, on TUESDAY, MARCH S, 1910.

at 1 o'clock P. M. on Annadale farm, the following described real estate, situated in Botetourt county, Va., described as follows:

1st. A farm of 570 acres, lying on the north side of James River, about two miles west of Glimore Mills Station, on the Chesapeake and Ohlo Railroad, known as Annadale. This farm is comprised of about 150 acres first-class bottom land and about 50 acres of second bottom land; balance in rolling land. Of the upland there is something lind. Of the upland there is something lind. The land is well watered by springs, improvements consist of old-style brick house, in good condition, with four large rooms on each of the two floors, and a finished basement; driseably situated on a slight elevation, and commands a fine view of the necuntains and river. Other improvements consist of stock and grain barns, tenant house, etc. Farm is well fenced, and has been well cared for. Plenty of apples and fruit, usually grown in this section. Suited to purposes of general stock, dairy and grain farm, and is susceptible of being divided into two or more smaller farms. This farm will be thown interested pertless by Mr. George Alphin,
2d. A farm of 250 acres on James River and Chesapeake and Ohlo Railroad, one mile from Rocky Point Station, and is comprised of about 25 acres of first-class bottom and 75 acres in timber; balance upland, of which a good portlon can be easily farmed. Improvements consist of seven-room road, one mile from Rocky Point Station, and is comprised of about 22 staces of first-class bottom and 75 acres in timber; balance upland, of which a good portion can be easily farmed. Improvements consist of seven-room frame house, nearly new; stock and grain barn for twelve head of stock. Land is well watered. A lot of improved young fruit trees. This is a desirable home for a reasonable sum, and will be shown by W. O. Houser, who now lives on the farm.

3d. A farm of 400 acres on James River and Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, near Indian Rock Station, with about 60 acres of bottom land, 100 acres of timber, pat of which is one of the few remaining original timber tracts, and balance cord wood, with a short haul. Cleared land is in good shape, and is productive land, suited ot grazing as well, improvements consist of only a fairly good, comfortable house, a good barn for stock and grain, and will house twenty head of stock. Watered by river and springs. This is valuable property, and must be seen to be appreciated. A willing worker would have an excellent chance on this farm utilizing the timber, cord wood, and general farming facilities afforded. To such a customer this farm presents an unusual coportunity to make money. Mr. O. K. Houser resides on this farm, and will show it to intending purchasers.

Terms on all the above mentioned properties will be reasonable, and made known on day of sale.

For additional information, write to the undersigned, who is acting for the heirs of the extre. RCHARD ALPHIN, Agent, Buchanan, Va.
